WILLIAM GRAYSON SCHOOL RECEIVES STUDENT CITIZENSHIP AWARD

William Grayson School was awarded one of six Public School of Saskatchewan Student Citizenship Awards in June of 2024. This award went to the Grade 6/7 class for the kindness they brought into their community. They helped around the neighbourhood, spent time with residents at Pioneer Lodge, and partnered with the Moose Jaw Humane Society to raise funds and supplies for the animals at the shelter.

The students and staff in attendance were presented the award by the Honourable Jeremy Cockrill, Minister of Education. Check out the video about their citizenship initiatives here. Well done students!
